understand it, but some of the others I can't.

SENATOR NICHOL: Was that a question for Senator Beutler?

SENATOR KAHLE: Yes, it could be, yes.

SENATOR NICHOL: Senator Beutler, would you like to respond to Senator Kahle's question?

SENATOR BEUTLER: I'm sorry, Mr. Speaker, I didn't hear the question.

SENATOR KAHLE: Well, it really is a question that is broader than what you are talking about, and that was how you determine who has the right to use them. Now for a paraplegic, as I understand it they would have a license on their car that would state that they are paraplegic, so they could have snow tires, or studded tires.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Exactly.

SENATOR KAHLE: Some of the other amendments that we have had, and it's probably an unfair question to you, how would you determine whether they had a right to use them or not? Even the mail carrier, for instance?

SENATOR BEUTLER: Senator Kahle, I have not explored the problem of all the other exemptions and so I really can't answer that.

SENATOR KAHLE: This is an unfair question to you. I withdraw the question.

SENATOR BEUTLER: Thank you.

SENATOR KAHLE: Thank you. I think that is all I have at the present time.

SENATOR NICHOL: Senator Newell, did you wish to speak to this amendment?

SENATOR NEWELL: Mr. President, I would ask Senator Beutler... I am in general sympathy... Senator Beutler, could you... I am in general sympathy with Senator Beutler's amendment. I do not find it repulsive and so forth, but at this time I would ask Senator Beutler to withdraw it and also try to work this out so we can put it on Select File. Now we need to make some provisions and I think this is the situation we have here. We need to make some provisions to allow
